W. E. RAWLINGS JOINS EMPLOYMENT DEPT. AS ASSISTANT DIRECTOR

W. E. Rawlings has joined the administrative staff as assistant director of employment in Poston under V. R. Kennedy, head of the Division, it was announced here yesterday.

Rawlings arrived from eastern Idaho where he was employed as WRA employment investigator.

He is a graduate of Purdue University, majoring in Agriculture. He served with the U.S. Department of Agriculture Extension Service (1928-40), and completed the following two years as state representative for the Bureau of Agriculture Economic.

SNELSON TO AWARD "E" BANNER TO EFFICIENT AND CLEANEST KITCHEN

Chief Steward C. E. Snelson announced that his department will award an "E" banner each week to the kitchen which is found to be the "cleanest" and serves the best food for that week."

Three supervising chefs have been appointed to make regular rounds in an advisory capacity to assist local chefs in preparation of the menus.

In a brief statement Mr. Snelson revealed that the block managers will form the committee to inspect the kitchens and decide which mess hall deserves the honors.

CHRISTMAS 1942

Today we shall join millions upon millions of fellow beings in commemorating the birth of Our Saviour. While Christmas is primarily a Christian celebration, it is now observed by people of all faiths. Is not that of great significance—that all people, regardless of their religious creed, believe in the benevolent Yuletide theme of "Peace on Earth, Goodwill toward all Men"?

At heart, all beings are instilled with some grain of implicit faith in that righteous Christmas principle. But today witnesses a sanguinary global conflict-created by mad dictators and imperialists whose sadistic lust for power is causing untold numbers of valorous men, women and children to sacrifice their lives that "Peace on Earth, Goodwill toward All Men" may once again reign in all its supreme glory.

We in Poston, too, are paying for the cost of insuring a world to come whereby "men may live in freedom from fear and want." Like the shepherds of old protecting and watching over their flocks, we who believe in law and order, and security, too, must be ever watchful and alert and protective against those few misguided souls with warped minds and a misplaced sense of patriotism who would stop at nothing to undermine our morale and efforts.
